Andrew Johnson Golf Club

18 Holes

Par 70

Course and Slope Ratings:

Blue 69.6/119 6,103 yards

White 67.6/116 5,691 yards

Red 66.6/113 4,776 yards

The course is primarily laid out on gentle rolling hills. The front and back nines are different enough to be two courses. The course has three Par 5 holes with the longest being 525 yards. There are five Par 3 holes with one being 179 yards over the course's reservoir. There are challenges for both the long hitters and finesse players. The fairways are common Bermuda and the greens are G2 bent grass. Thirty sand bunkers are strategically placed on the course. Come browse our golf shop, enjoy a sandwich from the snack bar or just sit on the deck and enjoy the scenery. You will experience East Tennessee's southern hospitality while enjoying a challenging, yet forgiving course.

Baileyton Golf Club

18 Holes

Par 71

Blue 6,379 yards

White 6,015 yards

Red 5,114 yards

Baileyton Golf Club is eighteen challenging holes nestled in the East Tennessee mountains. It is not a long course, but demands an accurate short game. This mountain gem, located off I-81 Exit 36, is both affordable and convenient. Senior days are Tuesday and Wednesday. Our “play all day” special allows you to play as many holes as you like for one low price including cart. Thursday evening scrambles are legendary with an average of 56 players each week.

Course and Slope Ratings:

Black 130/72.8 6,868 yards

White 122/69 6,086 yards

Red 115/69 5,199 yards

Crockett Ridge Golf Course is located near Kingsport and just four miles from I-81. This eighteen-hole golf course is an upscale, daily-fee facility providing a test for a variety of golfing skill levels. The layout, which incorporates four lakes, was carved out of the rolling hillsides and dense hardwoods and provides one of the most scenic and enjoyable rounds of golf in Eastern Tennessee. All golf carts are provided with GPS devices, measuring distances to both hazards and greens.

Course and Slope Ratings:

Blue 71.5/128 6,407 yards

White 69.5/124 5,938 yards

Gold 67.2/117 5,454 yards

Red 65.7/110 4,335 yards

Elizabethton Golf Course is nestled among the mountains of East Tennessee and lies on a gently rolling and sloping terrain. Smooth Bermuda fairways are contrasted with well placed sand traps and water hazards.

The course is defined by its greens. Since they tend to be fairly quick, the contour of the putting surfaces makes good approach shots a must for low scoring. With an estimated 35,000 rounds played annually, Elizabethton Golf Course is one of the area's premier courses.

Red 70.7/123 5,083 yards

River Trace is “the jewel in the shadow of the Smoky Mountains.” This 18 hole championship course was designed by architect Larry Boudreau. It is a delight for golfers any time of the year. If a picture is worth a thousand words, then River Trace is an eighteen chapter adventure. Multiple teeing areas allow golfers to choose the degree of challenge for the day’s round.

Limousine Kentucky bluegrass fairways are mowed to one-half inch and bent grass greens are walk-mowed to provide optimum playing conditions. Your enjoyment before, during and after the round is our foremost concern.
